RE: Establishment of the 2007 Guardian Ad Litem Contract for Services,
Request for Extension of Contract from FY 2007- FY 2009.

Beginning in the late fall of 2000, the Circuit Court embarked on an ambitious project to provide additional services to the Juvenile Abuse and Neglect Court. For years, the juvenile court appeal rate (the percentage of appeals arising from termination of parental rights orders) are exceeded any other division within the Court. The combined cost of those appeals approached $98,700 in FY 1999, and exceeded $138,000 in FY 2000. Outside of the costs, the continuing appeals led to great problems for the juvenile court system due to the lack of permanency in the Trial Court's orders.

Following discussions with the Juvenile Court Judge, Assistant State's Attorneys, Social Workers and advocacy groups for parents in juvenile court, the Court determined the most efficient manner to reduce the appellate rate would be to provide additional legal assistance through a Guardian Ad Litem during the case. The Guardian Ad Litem (GAL) would bridge the gap between the roles of the prosecutor and public defender providing the Court perspectives on the best interests of the family and child.

The program is considered a successful model of juvenile prosecution methods in the State of Illinois. The appellate rate has returned to a normal level from a historical perspective and the only expenses are for the contract for the GAL and the occasional case where there are numerous parties or conflicts where the Public Defender's office cannot represent the parties.

The contract amount for the GAL position has remained constant since FY 2001. The contract amount has been set at $60,000. Since that time, the average number of juvenile case filings has increased at a rate of 18% since 2002, and in 2006, the caseload was 88.6% higher than in 2001. The caseload for 2007 is projected to be slightly higher than 2006 and will represent approximately a 90% increase in case filings since 2001. The GAL is responsible for all of the increased number of cases.

The Circuit Court is requesting to establish a contract for services for the period of July 1, 2007 to December 31, 2009 that reflects both the increases in the cost-of-living and increase in the caseload for the period of 2001-2007.

Judge Donald Bernardi and I will be present at the July 2nd meeting to answer any questions you may have regarding this matter.
